■ A Message from mamakari

“It’s exciting to see this series is getting an anime just following the release of the drama! One dream being accomplished after the next, and it’s all thanks to the readers who have been supporting this since the beginning. Thank you so much, really! It looks like there’s going to be a bit of time until it’s available to watch, but I hope you all can enjoy watching Yumeko and her friends in the anime version as well. Definitely give it a watch!”
